The priest celebrant is interested in knowing some information about your loved one that might be included in his homily. The questions listed below may help you to think about what you want to share. Also the readings that you have chosen may help you make some notes about your loved one.

- How would your loved one like to be remembered?

- How would you describe their faith journey?

- What would he/she be most proud of from their personal life?

- What was she/he most passionate about?

- What were his/her most positive traits or characteristics?

- Is there a particular story or incident that would exemplify their life?

- How would she/he be described by their closest family and friends?

- Did he/she have any personal interests that reflect what kind of person they were?
